Washington.—Perhaps the most surprising development of the last fortnight, as revealed to this correspondent by one of the highest officials of the United States government, is the gradual turn in sentiment toward France in connection with her effort to collect reparations from Germany.

When the Ruhr invasion began, officials here felt that the opinion of the United States was almost solidly against France and they unhesitatingly deplored the step that had been taken. The reaction, however, has not been as pronounced in that direction as they believed. No official would undertake to state exactly what the trend of American opinion will be but the view given by the correspondent by one who is in a position to see the letters reaching the government from all parts on the subject is that the American people are by no means so hostile to France as they were at the outbreak of the war.

It cannot be said that the American government abandoned for the time being its policy of non-interference in the European conflict. It is true that the American people are by no means so hostile to France as they were at the outbreak of the war.

BIG BLIZZARD OF 1881 IS RECALLED

Monday's Snow Recalls Memorable Storm of 42 Years Ago Today.

Forty-two years ago Monday night, Feb. 12, 1881, the "great blizzard" that tied up railroads in the middle west for days broke. Snow, approximately two inches, fell here during Sunday night and Monday morning. It has delayed interurban and railway trains to minutes and more, driving the country because of shifting winds. The local street car service was hampered despite constant use of two sweepers.

Socialists Laud Student Journal

Madison.—Legislators Monday evinced their interest in the Scorpion, a new student journal of political opinion at the University of Wisconsin, and indicated that if the editors of the paper were expelled from school they would take a hand in the situation.

David Sinclair, son of Upton Sinclair, novelist, and J. H. Brooks, Delavan, editors of the Scorpion, are to appear before the University Dean of Men S. H. Goodnight, at 4:30 Monday to answer for their unauthorized publication. They affirmed their determination to continue printing their journal to promote "free thought."

An independent publication endeavor comes to Wisconsin's campus in the form of the Scorpion, a student-edited paper styling itself as a "political fortnightly."

The Cardinal assumes the appearance of the Scorpion as a public and unreserved means of expressing a phrase of university and national thought. It is an interesting project and may prove an exceedingly noteworthy one. The initiative of its editors is commendable.

"If the paper's title be interpreted correctly, things are due. And things expertly handled and well directed often can do much to ease out the root of difficulty, bring order to light and correct it."

Certain legislators, especially among the socialist group, subscribe to this statement, and say that they will watch university action against the editors, taking action themselves if any step is taken to suppress the journal.

WORK OUT RELIEF SLOWLY FOR GRADES

Congestion in the schools will be relieved, now that all eighth and seventh grades form part of the junior high school and occupy the new high school building, but will be done slowly, according to F. C. Holt, superintendent of schools.

"We have been unable to add teachers this semester," said Mr. Holt, "and so we will work out the congested problem slowly. The Jefferson school rooms are now occupied, starting Monday morning, and the first grade pupils go all day instead of half. This they are able to do by using substitutes who will remain until June. Next September we will have permanent teachers for the two first grades."

"Other situations in grade schools will be worked out in a similar manner."

Chief work in the building is now confined to the gymnasium and swimming pools. Partitions between the two immense gymnasiums were completed last week and stained. Tile in the pools has been completed, and men are laying the tile floors in the pool rooms, and are also working on the showers.

The girls' shower room has been completed, and by the end of this week, according to E. J. Craig, superintendent of the work, all work in this part of the building will be completed, with the exception of installing the filter system, to take about two weeks. Then the pools will be ready for use.

CROSSROAD WARNINGS USED IN ILLINOIS

Look! Cross road ahead," reads the sign as the motorist approaches a side road.

AT THE BEVERLY

"The Ninety and Nine" is melodrama from beginning to end, and for those who care for melodrama it is an extremely interesting and worthwhile picture. All will be thrilled by the exciting climax.

The general theme is taken from the Bible quotation which tells of the shepherd who neglected 99 sheep to look for one lost one. The connection in the picture is brought out through the hero's habit of drinking formed when his fiancée becomes engaged to another, thinking the hero excited for the time he had taken on his shoulders to protect the girl's brother, a small-town boy depicted with the usual small-town characters and characteristics.

Seldom in recent pictures is the climax so well worked up as in "The Ninety and Nine." Hugo Foster sings the song which the hero drives a locomotive to save the people in the town burning up are shown realistically.

Gertrude Astor, Colleen Moore and others form the cast. One of Euster Foster's best comedies, "Convict 13," and also a Harold Lloyd comedy are given.

LEASE ON LIFE IS GIVEN DEMOCRATS

Wisconsin Attorney General Rules Separate Ticket Without Petition in 1924.

Madison.—The democratic party still lives in Wisconsin, despite the failure of its candidates at the last primary to qualify as party representatives at the general election. Attorney General Herman L. Ekern decided Monday.

In an opinion written by Mortimer Levitan, assistant attorney general, the legal department of the state ruled that the democratic party may have a separate party organization ticket at the 1924 primary, without petitioning as a new political body. The lone party representative in the legislature, Assemblyman Richard Kampe, Lincoln county, was advised of the decision.

Two questions were asked by Assemblyman Kampe of the attorney general. One was whether the democratic party had gone out of existence as a state organization due to the fact that its candidate for governor at the last primary polled less than 10 per cent of the party vote of 1920. The other question was whether the basis for computing the number of names necessary to give the party representation on the general election ticket in 1924 will be 10 per cent of the 1920 vote or ten per cent of zero, the number of votes cast for a candidate in 1920.

Answering the first question, Mr. Levitan said that "the democratic party still lives as a state organization. Since the individual nominees of the party for state offices received more than one percent of the total votes cast in the past preceding general election in the state, the democratic party may have a separate primary election ticket at the next primary."

"The number of names on nomination papers required to get candidates on the primary ballot must be computed on the basis of the vote of the party presidential elector receiving the largest vote at the last preceding presidential election," the opinion advised.

In answer to the second question, it

Week-Day Instruction, With School Credits, Favored by Dr. Squires.

At a conference held Monday morning in the city hall, plans for week-day religious schools were discussed by representatives of nine different churches and a committee named to investigate the matter further and report to another representative meeting to be called in the near future. The committee is as follows: Rev. J. A. Melrose, Dean J. P. Ryan, Rev. G. J. Muller, Rev. E. G. Pierson, and Miss Ruth Jeffers.

The consensus of opinion favored the denominational type of school, as explained by Dr. W. A. Squires, but all agreed that the public school should be studied thoroughly before a definite move is made to ask the cooperation of the board of education.

Plan Is Endorsed.
Dean J. P. Ryan stated that this plan has been endorsed by the archbishop as being sound in principle, and that the public schools, if approved of such a move, although most of the children of that faith are now receiving religious instruction in the public schools, would approve of such a move, although most of the children of that faith are now receiving religious instruction in the public schools.

Nine Pastors Attend.
It was stated that while certain educational standards are required by the school authorities in the cities where children are excused at stated intervals during the school hours, no encroachment is made in the matter of interpretation of church doctrines and beliefs.

Those present were: Revs. Henry Williams, J. E. Ryan, Dr. W. A. Squires, E. G. Pierson, J. L. Marion, R. G. Pierson, F. J. Schreiber, F. A. Case, T. C. Thomson, Misses Bessie Lake, and Ruth Jeffers, Messadams, J. C. Cocking, H. M. Smith, Dr. W. A. Squires, J. A. Steiner, E. P. Hocking, Frank O. Jolt.

Sunday school and public school teachers were among those who heard the address given by Dr. W. A. Squires, New York, in the Congregational church here, Sunday night. The speakers stated that three steps are necessary to establish successful week-day schools of religion. The churches must first realize the importance of religious training of the young; next, they must realize the inadequacy of present methods; and third, they must appreciate the death of Edward Roy Bingham at Seattle, Wash. He was the son of Mr. Bingham, former residents of this city and the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. August Stratford, 107 East Milwaukee street.

Denominational Plan Popular.
In answer to a question asked during the open discussion which followed the address, Dr. Squires brought the following additional facts:

The most popular all-community type of week-day religious school is the denominational plan under which each church conducts its own school. The public school teachers have shown as much and in many instances, greater interest in the development of plans for week-day religious schools as have the church people.

In many cities one unit of high school credit is allowed to pupils who take a course of religious instruction in the public schools. The course and the teaching personnel having been first approved by the school authorities. Credit is not given as a rule for the work done by high school pupils.

Excused from School.
In every instance the pupils are excused during school hours at the request of their parents. Careful records are kept of the attendance in the church schools to ascertain that those dismissed for this purpose actually attend the church school. The records are kept in the public school during the period when other members of their class are absent for this purpose and given such work as the public school administration may assign.

The amount of instruction given ranges from 200 cities already following the plan. Where each denomination has its own schools, the plan of correlating the week-day course, that given in the Sunday school has proved quite feasible.

Tried in 4 Border Cities.
E. P. Hocking, president of the Rock County Educational Association, presided at the conference. The president now engaged in state Sunday school work, gave a short talk in which he stated that several cities are now promoting week-day church schools and that the plan is regarded with favor by John J. Callahan, state superintendent of public instruction.

New Leaders in Pin Meet.

Green Bay, Milwaukee pin stars asserted their supremacy in the Wisconsin state bowling meet over the week-end, capturing every place in five men, apparently clinched for the past week by the Chicago club. The Green Bay team, consisting of Capper and Capper quintet of Milwaukee, whose formidable 2974, seemed good at last on the holiday. While the exception of a new fourth place in doubles by E. Fox G. Hubbard, Milwaukee, with 1203, everything was quiet in this event. J. Sulewski, Milwaukee, slipped in third position in the singles, with 682.

The Wall Flower

By MARION RUBINCAM

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS. Pandora is so very shy that meeting people or being with her own family, is a positive experience. She lives as a "wall flower" with her Aunt Maud, and Uncle Peter, and their daughter, the popular Gladys. Her own father, gentle, whimsical, restless, impractical, lives and works in the city of them in the little town of North City.

Pandora is so often told she is no good, that she becomes more shy and self-conscious. She makes one friend only, Merton Newberry, an earnest, awkward lad, and she loves him deeply for his friendliness to her. Then Gladys, who has her choice of all the boys in the town, decides that she wants Merton, and marries him. Pandora is heartbroken.

Gloria Gates, an interior decorator from New York, whom Pandora had met, sends for her to come to the city and look after her little son, Frankie. In town among kinder people, Pandora begins to find herself. She fancies herself in love with George Ridgeway, whom she thinks in love with Gloria. Gloria receives a cable.

A PUZZLE Chapter 69

Pan's thoughts that evening were not entirely cheerful. It had been an exceedingly exhausting day—the long train journey, the address leaving her father, knowing it would be months before she saw him again—the telegram and Gloria's collapse, and the long visit from George.

It was after midnight, neither she nor Gloria were in the least sleepy, due to the nervous excitement and the quantities of coffee they had taken.

Gloria walked up and down the room, and up and down, the train of her long robe trailing behind her. She adored trains on a nostalgic somehow, when she curled up with her favorite attitude, she was tangled in yards of exquisite materials, and quantities of lovely colors. She had a sixth sense for artistic dressing; few women possess it.

"Get undressed and into bed, and I'll begin to pack the trunk in your room," you can tell me where to put things, then I'll stay quiet," Pan suggested.

Milwaukee Lady Declares Tanlac Restored Her Fully After Nervous Breakdown.

"Every time I think of my thirty-seven pound gain in weight and the splendid health I now enjoy, my heart goes out in gratitude to Tanlac," declared Mrs. William Wachtel, 1232 North Milwaukee, Wis.

"Following a nervous breakdown my health remained so wretched that I almost gave up hope of ever being well again. Indigestion caused me untold suffering, my nerves nearly drove me wild. My head ached as if it would burst, I couldn't get a good night's sleep, and was so weak my housework was out of the question."

"But I was astonished at my speedy recovery after starting on Tanlac. Now my nerves are steady, I haven't a sign of indigestion or any other troubles and my housework is a pleasure. Tanlac has been a blessing to me, and I am one of its staunchest friends."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 25-million bottles sold.

Heart and Home Problems

Letters May Be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We moved here only a few weeks ago and bought our home. We have quite nice neighbors here except one family. At least it seems that way to me.

I have two girls at high school. I love them dearly and would do anything to please them. They used to be fine girls to obey, but since we moved here I have disobedient children.

What would you advise me to do? I would like to be friendly with his neighbor but I don't know what makes my girl act that way. What would you advise me to do to make her obedient without nagging her? Would it be advisable to keep her away from the other girl at times? Her father works nights and sleeps days.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 23 and am going with a young man three years my senior. I have been going with him for some time now. He talks of marriage to me. I think a great deal of him except for the one reason that he drinks. He promised to give it up but when he gets in a crowd he is just as bad as the rest of them.

I thought I would give him up, but he always calls and asks forgiveness. As he treats me nicely and is good to me I can't give him up.

Could you advise me what to do?

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When my husband and I go to our home town for a visit my husband's mother thinks we ought to run around visiting all the relatives. This certainly isn't a vacation for us. Is it our duty to call on them?

Also when my "in-laws" call on us

FEEDING THE HANDS

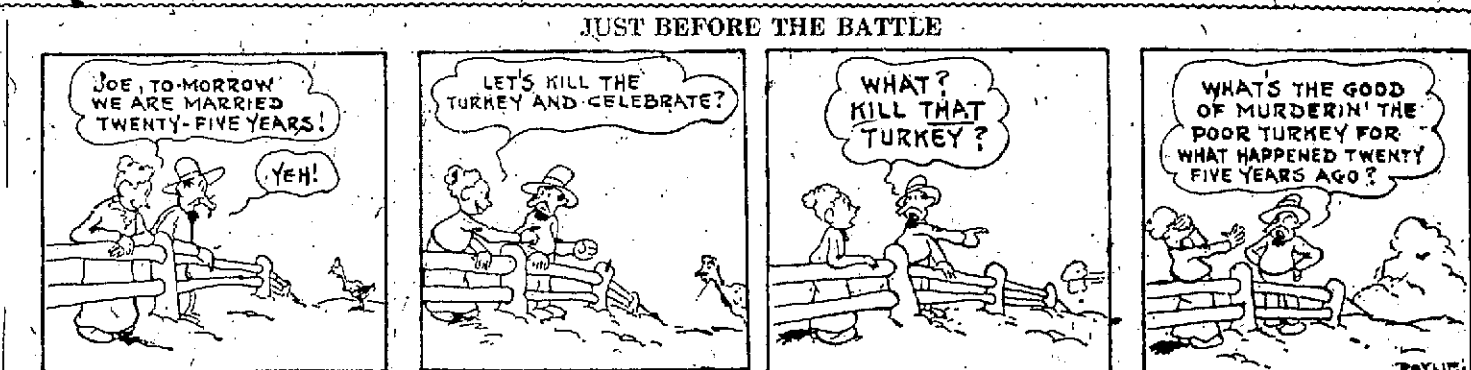

Kitchen lard in making the hands prettier. I advised it as a massage at night, with loose gloves pulled over the hands, so they could absorb the nourishing fat for hours while you

Sometimes the skin grows hard and dry.

It's also very good to rub into hands after doing housework, and especially after much dishwashing or scrubbing. Two things that take the natural oils from the hands, leaving them dry and too easily soiled.

Did I ever write the story of a scrub woman? I know personally, whose hands were always dry and looking? I asked her about that once, knowing her hands were in and out of water for eight hours every day. She said that when she finished work she washed her hands as clean as possible, then coated them with grease and pulled on heavy gloves which she wore home. It took nearly an hour to get home, time which was used in feeding her impoverished hands. An example to profit by. But of course you can use cold cream as a massage, or do a perfume prepared paraffin if you wish to spend lots of money.

Here's the Honey-Almond Lotion, which can be used at any time, since it dries into the skin, bleaching and softening it.

Quince seed, one-third ounce, Cold water, one cup, Steep 3 hours, strain, add one ounce of sweet almonds which have been blanched, bruised and pounded to extract their milky substance. Add Glycerine, one ounce, Boric acid, 30 grains, Ho bitter almonds, four drops, Honey, one-half ounce, Strain and keep in bottles.

Strawberry Ice Cream in Heart-Shaped Moulds.—Syrup from canned strawberries (about one-third cup), three cups thin cream, one cup sugar, few grains of salt, pink coloring. To the cream add the syrup drained from the canned strawberries, sugar and salt. A little more cream may be added if the syrup of the strawberries does not make the mixture sufficiently sweet. Color the mixture a delicate pink, and freeze, using three parts of finely crushed ice to one part of rock salt. Fill heart-shaped individual moulds with the strawberry ice cream, covered with buttered paper, adjust the covers of the moulds, pack in salt and ice, and let stand for three hours before serving.

Cats Lose Great Overtime Game—Break Local Ice Marks

Copyright 1920, by Geo. McManis

FANS SPELLBOUND AS FELINES HOLD BELVDERE 26-25

In one of those games that takes a man's inside, his nerves, his blood, his entire being and his entire team in a frenzy of shaking excitement, the Janesville Black Cats lost to the Belvidere Union club here Saturday night. For minutes that frightened into hours and hours for five more that were ages, 350 fans felt their hearts torn inside out, felt their breaths held in their throats until the sound of the final whistle broke the spell like the boom of cannon.

The final score was 26 to 25 for Belvidere.

Many a day has come and gone since the old rink on South River street held such a scene. Years have passed since the time-worn rafters shook under the strain of such frantic yells.

Oh, What a Night! When the battle had but a minute to go, and the score was 21 to 20 for the visitors, the wild-eyed, rooster huzzled for victory till their voices croaked from hoarseness. Then Carlson of Belvidere fouled.

Hopes many have slunk into despair when the Belvidere missed, sleeper shots in succession early in the game, but never was such a tough period as when "Red" Lanphere stood at the free throw line simultaneously with the crack of the pistol that said the game was over.

All was hush. Lanphere steadied. He shot. He scored, and the count was tied. The crowd roared. It broke into a boiling sea of heads and arms again. If he made it, the game was won. The ball took the air and he missed.

Close Action, More Action
The game was on again with Belvidere tearing loose as if they were going to show these home town lads how to play basketball. There was such a fast tempo that the Cats were playing ball, also. Their hard playing gave Belvidere an additional point on a free throw. Suddenly Lanphere streaked, he bent down, he scooped up the ball, was off through a hole and he scored. Shot after shot was missed by both sides.

WILL BOOK AGAIN
The Cats announced after the game Saturday, they will bring Belvidere here again, like Cats of the future. When they do, the fan who stays away, will miss the chance of a lifetime. Monday night, the Cats will play a third game with Belvidere at the Belvidere rink. That night of this week, the crack Waterbury team comes to the rink here.

until Lark got up under the basket and counted. The count surprised Belvidere. They were like Cats. Belvidere fought like Dicks—lean dogs. Then Kaskuska talked. There was more fighting and more yelling, but the scoring was done. Belvidere had defeated the Beloit Fairies at Beloit, 20 to 18.

Janesville played its best game of the season, but it was not enough. Belvidere's defense of four men to the rear plugging, possible holes. It ended 6 to 5 for the visitors and drew tremendous handclapping and applause from the spectators.

The fight grew more furious in the second quarter. It settled into a headlong rush, with Belvidere starting an irregular passing exhibition by Belvidere, ending the half with 15 to 13 against Janesville.

Coming back to the fray after the intermission, Belvidere resorted to a more open style. It was most for the Belvidere, and thought their passing was too fast, they tore through and scored. Belvidere's defense of four men to the rear plugging, possible holes. It ended 6 to 5 for the visitors and drew tremendous handclapping and applause from the spectators.

Throughout the contest, Janesville missed enough easy shots to win. Belvidere, too, could not locate the inside of the cage.

Lanphere Was a Bear-Cat
Every man on the Janesville team was in his glory. Kober's great guarding kept the elusive, Yde to a single field goal. Kober, applying for the first time since breaking two ribs, entertained the crowd as per usual, busting many plays. It was Capt. Lanphere, however, who led the pack in playing and generalship. Babcock, securing his share of the baskets, broke away from his long shot style as the game warmed up and slip into the "open" play. Kaskuska played a bang up game.

When it comes to the visitors, land the honors to Comstock and Walters.

Busy Man's Sport Page

By FRANK SINCLAIR

AT THE CLOSE of the Janesville-Beloit hockey game at the Gazette's second annual ice skating derby here Saturday afternoon, the scorekeeper approached Capt. Jack Wootton of the Gateway city sextette to check up. He asked for the name of the Beloit man who had scored in the second half, pointing him out. The Beloiters were surprised. They thought the game had concluded in a tie and not until after the scorer recalled the score was they ready to take the victory, declaring emphatically they had not won. Why can't we have more spirit like that between Janesville and Beloit teams?

THE GAZETTE's second annual ice skating derby is over. Some good time was made despite lack of competition as keen as the year before. Thoughts now turn to 1924. With the ever growing interest in this outdoor sport, it is planned to hold the event on a Sunday early in January next. For 1924 to include, perhaps, the skaters and attract a large crowd. Efforts will also be made to put on a top-notch carnival.

IT was through Janesville's interest in ice events that Beloit took up ice hockey this year. Plans are already under consideration for the formation of a league for this section for 1924-25 to include, perhaps, the skaters and attract a large crowd. Efforts will also be made to put on a top-notch carnival.

A PLAN now in mind for the derby next year is to hold skate derbies in several cities in southern Wisconsin. If the aid of people in these other places can be procured, they would all be held early in the year, at about the same time the one in Janesville would take place. The winners of each meet would be brought to a central place, perhaps Janesville, and a southern Wisconsin championship derby held.

WITH THESE things under consideration, it behooves the skaters of Janesville to get busy. They ought to start practicing right now with a view to entering next year. This section of the state should be better represented on the ice and if the derby with Beloit is not held, it is hoped to a high place. Are you with us, Janesville?

At Knollin, last year's Badger truck race, killed by gas engine explosion on father's farm at Beloit, Kas.

Joe Ray breaks four marks, making 13.5 mile in 3:59.4, 3,000 meters in 8:21.1-5, 2 miles in 9:05 2-5 and 1 1/2 miles in 8:24 3-5.

Basket Derbies—Towa still undefeated in Big Ten race, beating Northwestern 28-11 Saturday while Purdue trims Ohio, 26-21, and Chicago downed Indiana, 24-10, Saturday.

Janesville played its best game of the season, but it was not enough. Belvidere's defense of four men to the rear plugging, possible holes. It ended 6 to 5 for the visitors and drew tremendous handclapping and applause from the spectators.

Throughout the contest, Janesville missed enough easy shots to win. Belvidere, too, could not locate the inside of the cage.

Scrap About Scrappers—Piddie Anderson, bantam, meets Harry Smith at Chicago Saturday. Jack Shatley and Aldest Smith, lightweight, matched to meet next Friday at New York.

Bob Gardner and Chick Evans, golfers, announce they will not go to England with American team.

Steve Langeau Knifed—Babe Ruth starts south Thursday. Cincinnati to renew fight to bring Babe Benton back to Buffalo.

Forced to fight hard, William Tilden II, national tennis champion, won singles match from R. Lindley Murray at Buffalo.

Deaf School Loses Fast Game, 21-18
(By Gazette Correspondent)

Delavan—Greeted by a record crowd that witnessed one of the greatest basketball games ever played here, the Deaf school lost to the Silent Five of Milwaukee, 21 to 18. The state school lads were on the edge of the first quarter, 6 to 4, but the second quarter was a smooth passing and wonderful dribbling of Evans and Dillett enabled the Cream City five to run up a score of 19-6 which proved too big a handicap for the deaf boys to overcome.

The teams played a whirlwind game in the second half. Though the Deaf boys made points in each of the quarters and held down the silent team to two points on free throws in the third quarter and no count in the fourth, they could not take the lead. With the exception of the second quarter, the state school played a crack offensive as well as defensive game. Frank Spears and Platte were in great form. Swinburn, former Delavan grid star, was given an ovation.

"BRINGING UP FATHER—TEN YEARS AGO—JIGG'S DECENNIAL"

Lorentzen Star of Derby; Rileys, Recent Arrivals, Show Way to Adult Racers

Four new local skating marks were made and one performer repeated his winnings of a year ago in the second annual Gazette ice derby at 33 House pond Saturday afternoon. In addition two new local stars were brought to the fore.

Arthur Lorentzen was the lad who repeated. With the same pretty, confident stroke that won him the field a year ago, he featured by clipping 14.3-5 seconds off the quarter mile for boys, doing it in 1:08 4-5. He also grabbed first place in the 100 yard dash.

Two New Stars Show
Three hundred people witnessed the events, the sudden shift in the weather to colder in the afternoon keeping others away. The eight events were run off in the record time of 50 minutes.

J. B. Riley and sister, Miriam, residents of the city only a month, coming here from La Crosse, were easy winners in the men's and women's races. From the start it was seen that Mr. Riley was the class of the field in both the 440 yard and the mile for men over 18. So certain was he of coping the 440 with his steady, long stride that he did not even make a good time as was clocked last year. He took two seconds off the former mark of 4:11 4-5 in the mile. Miss Miriam had everything her own way in the 100 yard dash for women. She slipped to two; and yet she did the turns in 35 seconds, two seconds better than the record boys.

One of the proudest moments was between Taylor and her sister, Frances, for the 100 yard dash for girls. These lassies, noted for their swimming ability in which they always fight for places, changed places with the way they finished last year. Lucy winning.

Following the races, Albert Nott staged a great exhibition of fancy skating, drawing rounds of applause from the spectators. He featured with lights, double eights and eights on one skate. He demonstrated many strokes that amazed the crowd.

Second and third prizes were silk ribbons.

Our Country and History

The accusation is often thrown at us by visitors from across the sea that we are a country without a history, without traditions, and we Americans absorbed in business completely let such accusations go unchallenged.

Yet our country teems with history of the most poignant, romantic and constructive kind. Our history is short but vibrant and decisive—our early struggles with the Indians; our Revolutionary War that made us a Nation; the migration West; Gettysburg—and every step in our history has made for progress.

The history of our Stores has also been rapid, but like that of our Nation, it has been successful and constructive.
